

Year 5 Spellings: Term 6

Week 1 – week beginning 1st June

This week's spelling rule is: the different sounds for 'ough'
Sharks	Dolphins	Whales
tough rough cough enough bought	enough through brought although thought	although thorough enough thought nought

Week 2 – week beginning 8th June

This week's spelling rule is: words with silent letters.
Sharks	Dolphins	Whales
knight knee listen answer lamb	island numb autumn whistle wreck	knowledge glisten subtle fasten doubt

Week 3 – week beginning 15th June

This week's spelling rule is: hyphenated words. Some words with prefixes need to have a hyphen added to separate the prefix and root word, this is usually when the prefix ends in a vowel and the root word begins with a vowel. Some words have hyphens to show us that we need to read both words together to understand their meaning.
Sharks	Dolphins	Whales
re- enter co-pilot co-worker non-slip non-stick	high-tech co-worker re-entered pre-existing ill-tempered	pre-existing pre-recorded re-examine ill-tempered re-energise

Week 4 – week beginning 22nd June

This week's spelling rule is: plurals. This means that you change a word so that it means more than one.
Sharks	Dolphins	Whales
bruise : bruises bargain : bargains watch : watches country : countries library : libraries	dictionary : dictionaries signature : signatures competition : competitions opportunity : opportunities community : communities	community : communities dictionary : dictionaries category : categories amateur : amateurs neighbour : neighbours

Week 5 – week beginning 29th June

This week's spelling rule is: Statutory spellings
Sharks	Dolphins	Whales
calendar decide history imagine suppose therefore	appreciate communicate disastrous equipment immediate immediately	appreciate communicate disastrous equipment immediate immediately

Week 6 – week beginning 6th June

This week's spelling rule is: Statutory spellings
Sharks	Dolphins	Whales
various remember probably ordinary important group	vegetable temperature restaurant parliament necessary exaggerate	vegetable temperature restaurant parliament necessary exaggerate