

Year 5 Spelling: Term 5

Week 2 - Week beginning 27th April

This week's rule is: Homophones and near homophones.

These are words that sound the same or very similar but have different meanings and are spelt differently.

Starfish	Sharks	Dolphins	Whales
door floor poor find kind mind	herd heard threw through aloud allowed	cereal serial stationary stationery wary weary	precede proceed advise advise profit prophet practise practice

Week 3 - Week beginning 4th May

This week's rule is: Adverbs of time

These are words that tell us when something happened

Starfish	Sharks	Dolphins	Whales
wild climb most only after	finally earlier whilst yesterday tomorrow	immediately previously eventually recently tomorrow	immediately previously eventually punctually beforehand

Week 4 - Week beginning 11th May

This week's rule is: Adverbs of time – frequency or possibility

There are words that tell us how often or likely something is to happen.

Starfish	Sharks	Dolphins	Whales
fast last past father plant	often possibly probably sometimes always	generally usually constantly frequently definitely	obviously occasionally regularly definitely certainly

Week 5 - Week beginning 18th May

This week's rule is: Statutory Words

These are the words on your year 5/6 spelling list.

Starfish	Sharks	Dolphins	Whales
sure pure sugar any many again	peculiar although though perhaps thought complete	competition interrupt conscience conscious language sufficient	competition interrupt conscience conscious language sufficient